REWARDS ECOSYSTEM

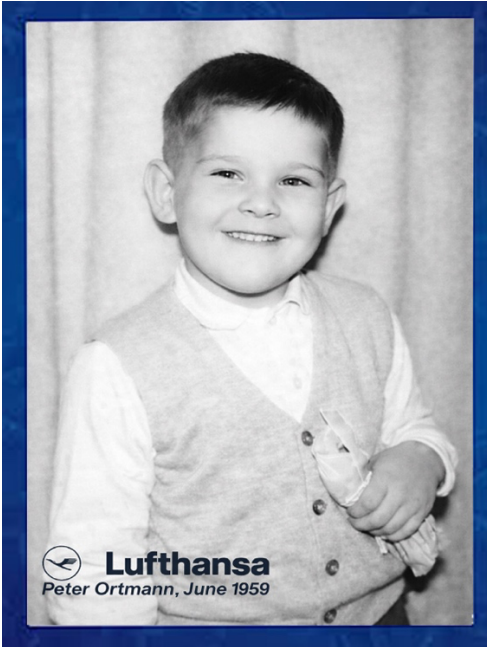

BUILT IN THE OPEN. DESIGNED TO SCALE.

The image depicts a man with grey hair and a goatee, wearing a dark jacket, sitting at a wooden table. Next to him is a female robot assistant with a yellow and silver body, wearing a headset with a 'Z' on it and a vest that says 'ClubZERO AI ASSISTANT'. They are both looking towards the camera. On the table in front of them is a silver laptop, a black mug with the ClubZERO logo, a white hard hat with the ClubZERO logo, and a large rolled-up blueprint for 'AQUARIUM PLAZA NEWPORT COAST, CALIFORNIA'. The background shows a construction site at dusk with a building labeled 'TIVOLI VILLAGE' and a dark SUV with 'NAVIGATOR' and 'ClubZERO' on its front. A billboard behind them features advertisements for 'AIR SHARK', 'AQUARIUM PLAZA RESORT & SPA', 'OCEAN VOYAGES RITZ-STYLE CRUISE EXPERIENCES', and 'REESHARK APPAREL'. The sky is a mix of orange and purple, suggesting sunset or sunrise.

Built in the Open. Designed to Scale. Ready for YOU!

The first 10,000 positions will not be reopened once filled.

Looking back, I always felt that I began my entrepreneurial journey and service-minded approach to business - on my 4th birthday in 1959, serving guests aboard a transatlantic Lufthansa flight, traveling from Toronto, Canada to Frankfurt Germany, making two refueling stops along the way.

Back then, I flew on a Lockheed L-1049 Super Constellation, their primary long-haul aircraft and elegant “Golden Age” service, at the end of the propeller-driven flight era, right before jets took over in March 1960.

I was allowed to go down the aisle passing out handkerchiefs filled with candy, chocolates, and sugar-coated nuts. I still remember that day, and reflect on it often, as it felt special and personal. It proves one thing to me – your life experiences – regardless of how long ago they may have occurred – help build the person you become.

Transparency from the Start

What you are about to read is not a finished company. It is a framework. A structure. A system being designed, tested, and expanded in real time. At the time of publication:

- No guarantees are made regarding timelines, outcomes, or performance
- Certain concepts, destinations, partnerships, and features described are not yet operational, and some are subject to change
- No formal agreements with any third-party partners, brands, integrated sponsors or operators currently exist unless explicitly stated
- All plans remain subject to market conditions, regulatory considerations, and execution realities

Timelines may shift. Execution will evolve. That is the nature of building something at this scale, in the open. Nothing within these pages should be interpreted as a guarantee, a promise, or an offering of securities.

This is not an investment document. It is a transparent look at what is being built, how it is being built, and where it is intended to go. And yet - despite all of that - there is something very real here.

The structure is real. The intent is real. The system is real. And the fact that you are seeing it now...means you are earlier than most.

This book presents the vision, structure, and forward-looking development of the ClubZERO Rewards ecosystem (“Ecosystem”), a membership-driven platform currently in active development as of April 10, 2026.

The information contained herein includes forward-looking concepts, member growth and financial projections, and strategic intentions that are subject to change as the platform evolves.

All plans remain subject to market conditions, regulatory considerations, and execution realities. Any participation referenced is voluntary and subject to applicable terms, conditions, and compliance requirements.

DEDICATION

For Those Who Inspire Something Greater

This was never meant to be just a business. At its core, this entire ecosystem exists because of something far more personal. Something that cannot be measured in revenue, or growth, or scale.

It exists because of the love, passion, and the loss of our Founder's seven-year-old granddaughter, Marissa, and more importantly his commitment to her spirit - that he would one day build a way to remember her – which became Marissa's Reef for Heavenly Helpers.

Marissa's Reef - stands at the center of everything you are about to read, and the purpose behind the Aquarium Plaza vision. Not as a concept, but as the reason this system exists at all.

To build a place and system to support it where remembrance becomes something living.

Where memory is not something that fades, but something that continues to live. Something that grows, touches others, and carries forward in ways we never expect.

Because of loss. Because of the belief that even the smallest life can leave behind something powerful enough to shape what comes next.

This is for Marissa. And for every life lost to natural causes that continues to inspire something greater than ourselves.

“True leverage is not doing more,
it's building something that continues without you.”

Peter “The AngelPreneur” Ortmann

PREFACE

Why This Is Being Shared Now

Most companies are built quietly. Behind closed doors, where plans are refined, capital is secured, and strategies are executed without outside visibility.

By the time the public sees them, they are already complete. Already positioned. Already moving. That is not what is happening here.

ClubZERO Rewards is being built differently. Not in secrecy, but in the open. Not after completion, but during creation.

Not as something you discover later, but as something you can witness - and choose to engage with - while it is still forming.

What you are reading is not a finished story. It is the beginning of one.

A system that is being shaped not just by its founder, but by those who have recognized it early enough to step into it with intention. As Founding members.

A platform that is not simply being prepared to launch, but grown - through participation, alignment, and shared momentum. Because the most powerful systems are not revealed all at once.

They emerge. And those who see them early...have the opportunity to stand in a very different place within them.

“The difference between an idea and a movement... is the moment people begin to believe they are part of it.”

“The AngelPreneur”

INTRODUCTION

You Didn't Find This by Accident

There is a difference between discovering something... and arriving early to it. Most people will come across ClubZERO when it is visible. When the destinations are active, the network is operating, and the system is already understood.

You are not seeing it at that stage. You are seeing it now. Before it is obvious. Before it is fully built, and the majority even knows it exists.

What ClubZERO Rewards is, in simple terms: a membership-driven platform that:

- Generates recurring revenue through monthly dues
- Uses that revenue-along with multiple other sources within the ecosystem to build and operate real-world assets
- Allows members to participate in its growth, and earn income from member referrals
- And rewards that participation through income and long-term ownership positioning

What is being created here is not a single destination, or a collection of resort properties, a cruise line, travel club or even a traditional membership program. It is something much larger.

An integrated platform of Entrepreneurial Ecosystem Destinations connecting hospitality, mobility, media, experiences, and participation into one scalable member-driven structure.

Where growth is not driven from the outside, but from within.

This is not about booking a room, or taking a trip. It is about stepping into a platform.

And as with anything being built in real time, timing matters.

Because once something like this becomes widely understood...the true advantage of seeing it early disappears forever.

“The ocean is the original network - a vast, living highway that has connected the world’s people for centuries. Sailors once followed its currents to discover new lands and new possibilities.

Today, ClubZERO builds on that legacy - connecting people once again, not only through travel and adventure, but through a shared commitment to protect the oceans that unite us all.

The sea connects the world, its people... and the very future we choose to build together. The ocean is our survival lifeline and it is our responsibility to protect it for future generations.”

PART I

The Base Foundation

Every meaningful shift in an industry begins the same way. Not with scale. Not with visibility. But with structure.

At first, it rarely looks like anything significant. It may resemble an idea, or a concept, or a collection of unrelated pieces. Something interesting, but not yet fully formed. And then, over time, a pattern begins to emerge.

That is what you are stepping into now. ClubZERO is not being built as a single business, or even a collection of businesses. It is being designed as an integrated ecosystem platform - one that connects multiple industries into a single, unified structure.

Where most models operate independently, this one is designed to operate as a whole. Where most businesses rely on external demand, this one is structured to generate its own internal momentum.

Where most platforms are built first and experienced later...this one is being built while people are still stepping into it.

The Future of Integrated Hospitality

Chapter 1

The System

Not a Project - A Platform

There's a moment, when you're looking at something new, where it stops feeling like an idea...and starts revealing itself as a pattern. At first, it doesn't stand out.

It might look like a resort concept. A travel platform. Maybe even a collection of interesting ideas that could exist on their own. Each piece makes sense individually, but nothing about it immediately suggests something larger.

And then, slowly, the perspective shifts. You step back just enough to see how the pieces relate to each other. Not as separate parts...but as something connected.

Traditional hospitality has always been built in fragments. A hotel operates within its own walls. A resort competes within its own market. A cruise line builds its own ecosystem, separate from everything else.

Even loyalty programs - meant to connect experiences - sit on top of these systems rather than within them. They reward behavior, but they don't change the structure.

So, the experience remains the same. You move from one place to another. One transaction to the next. One experience at a time. Each one begins... and ends... on its own.

ClubZERO was never designed to work that way. Not because those models are broken...but because they were never meant to be connected. What is being built here doesn't start with a destination. It starts with a structure.

A unique ecosystem connecting land, air, sea, experiences, and participation into something that doesn't reset every time you move.

Something that carries forward, builds on itself, and becomes more valuable the more you engage with it.

The difference is subtle at first. Instead of asking, "Where do I go next?" the question becomes, "Where does this system take me next?"

Instead of starting over with each experience...you move within something that continues. That is the moment when the shift happens. When it becomes clear that this isn't a project.

It isn't even a collection of projects. It is a platform. A system designed to grow not just by adding more pieces... but by strengthening the connections between them.

Membership programs are not new. Some of the largest, most popular retail brands operate membership-like models.

There is power in numbers. Once you see that...it becomes difficult to look at it any other way of building a large-scale business today.

Building it together with our members – makes ClubZERO Rewards unique.
